

Visits to the College

The School of Graduate Studies hosts virtual general admissions information sessions as well as program-specific information sessions where prospective students can learn about the curriculum and the admissions requirements. For more information about upcoming events, visit the graduate events page at fitnyc.edu/admissions/graduate-applicants/admissions-events.php.