Participation in activities on campus prove to be a valuable learning experience; it's also a great way to meet people. FIT has over 60 clubs and organizations open to current degree-seeking students; some may have additional requirements for membership. All clubs and organizations must adhere to FIT's Nondiscrimination Policy.

Students are encouraged to use FIT Link, FIT's social network for students, which provides the tools to navigate FIT clubs, organizations, resources, and activities. Students use FIT Link to get involved on campus, engage with the FIT Student Government Association, and view a calendar of programs and activities both on campus and off.

FIT Tiger LEADers

FIT Peer Mentor Tiger LEADer training program is especially designed to provide FIT students with experience that develops, challenges, and supports them as socially responsible leaders in the world. These positions are a unique leadership experience for students to learn more about themselves as leaders, and simultaneously have a profound impact on our campus. Tiger

LEADer positions are Resident Assistants, Orientation Leaders, Health and Wellness Peer Educators, and Cultural Fellows. Tiger LEADers are paid leadership positions.

FIT Honor Associations

- Chi Alpha Epsilon: Chi Alpha Epsilon National Honor Society is dedicated to acknowledging the success of students in the Educational Opportunity Program (EOP).
- Delta Alpha Pi: Delta Alpha Pi Honor Society participates in activities designed to educate the community and society regarding disability issues and the principles of universal design.
- Phi Theta Kappa: Phi Theta Kappa (PTK) is the international honor society for students in their associate degree program.

Student Volunteer Community Service (SVCS)

Led by the Department of Student Life in partnership with various campus constituents, this program has been established to serve the greater NYC community. As a recipient of the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll, SVCS offers students the opportunity to directly serve and further contribute to the improvement and development of their community.
