

Creative Technology Minor

The Creative Technology minor offers a learning opportunity for students who are interested in expanding and exploring their technological knowledge and experience. This minor equips students with a fundamental understanding of digital culture, design technologies, as well as the opportunity for interdisciplinary collaboration.

The Creative Technology minor is open to all students in the Schools of Art and Design, Business and Technology, and Liberal Arts.

Co-Coordinator:

C.J. Yeh

chinjuz_yeh@fitnyc.edu

Co-Coordinator:

Christie Shin

christie_shin@fitnyc.edu

Requirements:

- The successful completion of at least five (5) courses (as detailed below) is required, with a minimum 2.5 GPA. The minor must be completed before graduation.
- You are encouraged to complete four (4) classes from the list of choices before registering for the required CT 441 Creative Technology Lab.
- If only three classes have been completed, you must be registered for the fourth class or be in the process of completing the fourth class before registering for the required CT 441 Creative Technology Lab.

Required Courses

CT 200	Content Design and Research	2
CT 244	Introduction to Web Design (prerequisite: CD 126, CD 224 or CT 200)	2
CT 411	Design and Interaction (prerequisite: CT 244)	2
CT 305	Digital Design: Visual Communication or Digital Design: Visual Storytelling	3

Required Capstone Course

CT 441	Creative Technology Lab (prerequisite: declaration of minor and coordinator approval)	2
--------	---	---

Please check the website for course descriptions and prerequisite requirements.

 Semesterly course offerings are subject to change.*