

International Programs

B119, (212) 217-5380
fitnyc.edu/study-abroad/

The Office of International Programs coordinates opportunities for students to study abroad for a year, a semester, or three to four weeks in the summer or winter sessions. Students may also study abroad through SUNY (suny.edu/studyabroad) or the College Consortium for International Study (CCISabroad.org). Applicants are selected competitively and are generally required to have a minimum GPA of 3.0. Students must develop a study abroad course plan with their department's chair or study abroad faculty coordinator that lists the courses they are approved to complete abroad so they may transfer credit back to the FIT degree program.

SHORT-TERM STUDY ABROAD AND INTERNSHIP PROGRAMS

FIT conducts many international short study courses in subjects such as Art History, Italian, Japanese, Cosmetics and Fragrance Marketing, Graphic Design, Photography, Illustration, Textile Development and Marketing (TDM), Textile/Surface Design, and Packaging Design, during the summer and winter sessions in a variety of locations, including Chile, India, Japan, UK, France, Spain, and Italy. Students receive 2, 2.5, 3, or 4 FIT credits upon completion of a short-term study abroad program. FIT also offers four- to eight-week internships abroad during the summer session in England, France, Germany, Spain, Italy, and Australia. For more programs and locations, see fitnyc.edu/academics/global/study-abroad/programs/short-term.
