

International Politics Minor

A minor in International Politics will deepen and expand a student's knowledge of the discipline. In these courses, students will develop a greater understanding of world politics by examining current and historical events and issues in the field. Students will learn how international actors—states, intergovernmental and nongovernmental organizations—interact with each other and/or create institutions for cooperation in order to maximize power and realize their ideals. The minor provides students with major theoretical approaches to critically analyze the development of the global polity, a knowledge base well-suited to all majors.

The following requirements below are intended for students beginning fall 2025.

To declare your minor, please speak to your academic advisor for assistance.

Minor Coordinators:

Praveen Chaudhry

praveen_chaudhry@fitnyc.edu

Yasemin Celik Levine

yasemin_levine@fitnyc.edu

Choose One (1) or Both of the Following Courses

PC 151 Global Power and Politics	3
----------------------------------	---

PC 251 American Government and Politics	3
---	---

Select Three (3) or Four (4) of the Following Courses

FI 200/ Bollywood and the Making of India	3
PC 202

PC 395 International Conflict in the 21st Century (Honors)	3
--	---

PC 397 Religion and Global Politics (Honors)	3
--	---

PC 341 Women and Global Politics	3
----------------------------------	---

PC 353 Latin America Today	3
----------------------------	---

PC 354 Comparative Political Systems	3
--------------------------------------	---

PC 356 Asia in Motion: National, International, and Transnational Relations	3
---	---

PC 393 Politics in the Middle East (Honors)	3
---	---

Semesterly course offerings are subject to change.